Senior Spotlights

by Peyton Brewer

Jacey Peters is the daughter of Willie and Tracey Peters. Her birthday is the 9th of December 2005. A reason Jacey likes Homer is because it is a small town, so everyone knows everyone. Jacey's favorite lunch from Homer is the chicken sandwich. Jacey's favorite subject is art, and her favorite teacher is Mrs. Tremayne. Jacey has participated in basketball, volleyball, track, speech, one act, and choir. Jacey's most memorable moment from Homer is when her team beat the school record that had not been beaten since 1986 in volleyball. Jacey plans to do agronomy and cosmetology after she graduates.

Makenna Owens is the daughter of Cassie and Shawn Spurrell. Her birthday is May 16, 2006. The reason Makenna likes being at Homer is because she likes how everyone builds relationships with each other. Makenna really enjoys the mac and cheese lunch from Homer. Her favorite subject is math, and her favorite teacher is Mr. Dziurawiec. She has participated in volleyball, cheer, one act, National Honor Society, student council, and track. The most memorable moment at Homer for her was when breaking the school record and making it to state in the 4 x 400. Makenna plans to attend the University of Nebraska at Lincoln and will major in Nutrition and Exercise Sciences to be an Athletic Trainer.

Brody Raff is the son of Wendy and David Raff. Brody was born on November 5, 2005. Brody likes being at Homer because he got to spend time with the same people his whole life. Brody says the best lunch at Homer is the taco in a bag. His favorite subject is physics, and his favorite teacher is Mr. Dziurawiec. He has participated in football, track, one act, and speech. The most memorable moment for Brody is when he got voted king for homecoming. Brody plans to go to college or work right away after he graduates.

Ryan Rasmussen is the son of Mike and Cherie Rasmussen. Ryan's birthday is July 24, 2006. What he likes about going to school at Homer is because it is a small school. Ryan says the best lunch at Homer is mac and cheese. His favorite subject is anatomy, and his favorite teacher is Mr. Dziurawiec. Ryan participates in basketball, cross country, and golf at Homer. His most memorable moment at Homer is when they beat Hartington CC in basketball. Ryan plans to go to college at USD after graduation.
